VIENNA'S VINEYARDS

Vienna's wine culture reveals itself with an expert guide as guests hike through vineyards with spectacular views over the city. A picnic of typical "heurigen" food and Austrian wines, including the Gemischter Satz – a unique blend of grapes grown right here in Vienna – is surrounded by a scenic landscape many visitors don't expect.

STUDIO COMPLOJ GLASSBLOWING EXPERIENCE

Step into a world where creativity and craftsmanship in glass art come together glass art, from intricate sculptures to elegant functional pieces. In a private glassblowing course, you have the unique opportunity to learn about the history and tradition of glass artisans in Vienna and directly and work with molten glass to create your own sculptures and ornaments.

DESIGNER DINING BY ANANTARA

An intimate gastronomic journey

Unparalleled luxury awaits in a private three-course lunch at Michelin-starred restaurant EDVARD, hosted by Head Chef, Paul Gamauf. A personalised menu features an array of textures and flavours crafted from meticulously selected seasonal ingredients with a low-waste food philosophy and expertly paired with fine wines curated by our sommelier.

SPICE SPOONS COOKING CLASS

Mastring the art of Viennese cuisine

At Anantara Palais Hansen Vienna Hotel's signature cooking class, guests learn to prepare a three-course menu of Austria's most popular delicacies with ease. Expert chefs reveal the secrets of the classic semolina dumpling soup and an authentic Wiener Schnitzel served with a traditional potato salad and all the trimmings. The finale is Kaiserschmarren, a lightly sweetened pancake served with apple sauce.
