

NH SINTRA CENTRO

History and location

Among rolling hills and verdant forests, a short distance from Lisbon, lies a town that seems straight out of a fairy tale: Sintra. This enchanted land boasts breathtakingly beautiful palaces, castles, and gardens that have enchanted visitors for centuries. As you amble through the narrow, cobble streets of the town's historic center, you'll be instantly transported back in time to a past era of romance, mystery, and magic. Sintra is truly a place of beauty and wonder, where every corner and glimpse hold something incredible to marvel at.

Nestled within this picturesque paradise, you'll find the NH Sintra Centro, a flagship of comfort and luxury that perfectly complements the enchanting surroundings.

The hotel rises right in the main square of the city, directly opposite to the medieval National Palace of Sintra and is perfectly located for those seeking to uncover the secrets of this UNESCO-listed town. Sintra National Palace and Quinta da Regaleira are both within walking distance of the NH Sintra Centro. After exploring the city, you can unwind with a drink on the lobby balcony which overlooks the wonderful Quintana de Regaleira and admire the intricate details of the Moorish Castle.

Comfort and attention to details

Its 77 rooms and suites are spacious and decorated with rustic furniture in warm cream and pastel tones, as well as hydrangea paintings inspired by the lush natural surroundings of the Sintra region. Most rooms have a panoramic view of the valley and the Sintra mountains, or even down to the sea on a clear day. If you want to spoil yourself, the Suite with its breathtaking 180° view of Sintra's village, mountains, and castle is a must. To stay connected, all accommodations include free Wi-Fi and a flat-screen TV.
