ATHENS CAPITAL
HOTEL

MGALLERY COLLECTION

An artful urban break to feel the city vibes

The Hotel

Athens Capital Hotel – MGallery Collection brings an understated level of finesse to this cosmopolitan and vibrant city. With a timeless and worldly elegance that blends art and business, the hotel is located at Syntagma Square, opposite to the Parliament House in the beating heart of Athens.

The perfect choice for a city break, its walls recount the past with art in all its expressions. Our guests will have the opportunity to experience this cradle of Western civilisation, stroll through beautiful Athenian surroundings, discover the commercial centre and explore ancient Greek history. Next to the upscale neighbourhood of Kolonaki and amid art galleries and boutiques, Athens Capital Hotel – MGallery Collection enjoys an unrivalled location.

Location

Discreetly niched near Syntagma Square, a short distance from the airport (a 40-minute drive), a few steps from the metro station and only a 15-minute walk, or 5-minute metro ride, from the Acropolis.

“A guest never forgets the host who had treated him kindly.”

Homer

Rooms & Suites

A total of 177 guest rooms, including 18 suites and 1 Presidential Suite with large windows showcasing the city view. Each room is an elegant cocoon, incorporating signature state-of-the-art MGallery amenities, such as a built-in smart TV with satellite channels, an electronic personal safe and high-speed Wi-Fi access. A piece from a collection created specifically for Athens Capital Hotel by a renowned Greek painter, imbued with the light and lines of the Cyclades, offers a unique touch of character to every room. As a tribute to the timeless presence of Greek artists in the culture of the world, each Athens Capital Hotel – MGallery Collection Executive Suite is dedicated to a Greek creative visionary. Reminiscent of Melina Mercouri, Maria Callas, Odysseus Elytis and Manos Hadjidakis, the walls recount the past in these stunningly decorated accommodations.
