Destination Leiria

In this district, two monasteries are worth a visit, they are the Monastery of Alcobaça, one of the greatest examples of Portuguese Gothic architecture, and Batalha, the most important symbol of the Avis Dynasty. Famous for its glass industry, Marinha Grande offers excellent walks along the “Glass Route”, as well as the Peniche and Nazaré beaches.

The region of Leiria and Fátima fit into a very rich historical, religious and cultural heritage. Recognised as one of the most esteemed pilgrimage places in the world, the city of Fátima is one of the most popular destinations in Portugal.
