Ultramarijn

Wonderbar

The Netherlands historically is a coastal nation of seafarers, navigators, traders and explorers. Technical talent and curiosity helped discover unknown territories as well as create new land from the sea since middle ages by a sophisticated polder system. Now the Dutch have come to discover Ultramarijn.

Designed like a steampunk adventure inside the city of The Hague, we welcome you above deck or below deck, for coffee or cocktails, alongside breakfast or bites. Don't forget to step inside our old bank vault for exclusive launches and events.
