CULINARY PHILOSOPHY

1.

Combine contemporary culinary techniques with time-honoured recipes from Southern Italy. The cuisine respects the essence of the local food culture, particularly that of the Sorrento Peninsula.

2.

Strong emphasis on the use of high-quality, locally sourced ingredients from both the Sorrento region and the surrounding areas of Cascais. This includes fresh seafood, seasonal vegetables, and organic produce.

3.

Embodies the rich agricultural and culinary heritage of the Sorrento Peninsula, known for its olive oil, lemons, tomatoes, and pasta. This is reflected in the menu, which highlights these key ingredients in authentic Italian dishes.

Our menu at Don Alfonso 1890 Cascais showcases authentic Italian cuisine crafted from meticulously selected ingredients, offering much more than just classic pizzas and pastas. While you can enjoy a delightful selection of homemade pasta dishes and expertly prepared pizzas by our skilled Pizzaiolo, we focus on more than the familiar.

Seasonality plays a crucial role in our culinary approach, with our menu evolving throughout the year to feature fresh, organic ingredients at their peak. This dedication to seasonal ingredients ensures that every meal not only excites the palate but also captures the essence of each season's vibrancy.

Despite this ever-changing menu, one cherished dish remains a constant favorite: the Spaghetti Don Alfonso. Its ingredients are simple and available year-round, but the true allure of this celebrated dish lies in the precise techniques used to harmonize its flavors.

A beloved classic, it embodies the enduring spirit of Don Alfonso's culinary legacy.

NICOLA RESTAINO EXECUTIVE CHEF
